New Mexico High School Football Roundup, Friday, October 11 KLEM News 11/12/2016: La Cueva's Nigel Carrillo (5) breaks a tackle and runs for a touchdown against Montezuma-Cortez during their bi-district playoff game on Friday, October 11, 2016. The Bulldogs were 2-2 in the league. "Klem is really good in the bi-district playoffs," said Montezuma head coach Josh Patrone. "They had a bye this week, so they are going to play Montezuma on Wednesday, November 2." La Cueva, who finished the season with a record of 3-6, will host Montezuma-Cortez on Wednesday, November 2. Montezuma was 3-4 in the league, but one of those losses came at the hands of a tough Rio Grande League opponent, Santa Fe. Hidalgo, who finished the season with a record of 3-7, will host Santa Fe on Friday, October 12. Santa Fe defeated Montezuma, 39-0, earlier this season. The Shamrocks finished the season with a record of 4-4. Hidalgo will play Santa Fe for the Class 3A title on Friday, October 12. Other Highlights: Farmington may have been the biggest surprise team of the year. The Dragons finished the season with a record of 3-7 and ended the season with a victory over Chloride. Spiro came into the season ranked nationally, but were dismissed from the Top 25 earlier this year. The Cardinals finished the season with a record of 4-4. "The state tournament is very difficult," said Spiro head coach Jim Landis. "The level of play is much higher than it is in the league." Spiro will host Farmington on Friday, October 12. Piedra Vista, who finished the season with a record of 5-5, will host Hidalgo on Friday, October 12. Piedra Vista had to play on a Friday, since the game was scheduled for a Saturday, October 13. 2d92ce491b
