Top Arizona Car Accident Injury Lawyers

Being injured in an auto accident can change your life in a moment. In addition to the shock and emotion of the accident, it can be overwhelming to deal with all of the unexpected decisions you face after an injury. Figuring out what to do next and what options you have after being unexpectedly injured can be extremely stressful, and many people are unsure of how to get the help they need. At Bighorn Law of Arizona, our auto accident attorneys will guide you through the legal process and protect your rights so you can focus on recovering from your injuries.

Our team of experienced car accident injury lawyers understand that going through a painful and serious injury can be a difficult and financially straining experience. We want you to know that we will always be in your corner so you don't have to go through this process alone. Our attorneys have decades of experience successfully recovering compensation for accident injury victims, so while we take on the responsible party's insurance company in court and fight to get the compensation you deserve, you can put your energy towards recovering from your injuries and getting back to normal.

What Damages Can I Recover?

Accident injury victims can seek compensation for different types of damages in Arizona. Economic damages cover medical bills, lost wages, loss of future income, and property damage.

Noneconomic damages include monetary damages for injuries sustained, pain and suffering for emotional and psychological anguish, and loss of enjoyment of life.

Arizona law requires that personal injury victims file a claim within two years after an accident occurs or when a hidden injury was first discovered.
