Wall displays are an effective way for businesses to showcase their brand, products, and messaging to customers and visitors. In Baltimore, MD, there are many businesses looking for ways to make a lasting impression on their customers and create a memorable experience. At Heritage Printing, Signs & Displays, we offer a variety of wall display solutions to help businesses do just that?

Types of Wall Displays

At Heritage Printing, Signs & Displays, we offer a variety of wall display options to suit the needs of businesses of all sizes and industries. Some of our most popular wall display options include:

Wall murals: Wall murals are a popular choice for businesses looking to create a unique and eye-catching display. They can be customized with high-resolution graphics, photographs, and text to showcase a business's brand, products, or messaging. Wall murals can be installed on any smooth surface, including walls, floors, and ceilings.

Custom wallpaper: Custom wallpaper is another popular wall display option that allows businesses to showcase their branding and messaging in a unique way. Custom wallpaper can be customized with a business's logo, colors, and messaging, and can be installed in a variety of spaces, including offices, retail stores, and event spaces.

Acrylic displays: Acrylic displays are a modern and sophisticated way to showcase a business's products or messaging. They can be customized in a variety of shapes and sizes and can be backlit for added impact. Acrylic displays are ideal for retail spaces, museums, and other public spaces.

Fabric displays: Fabric displays are a lightweight and versatile wall display option that can be customized with high-quality graphics and messaging. They can be used as backdrops, signage, or as part of a larger display. Fabric displays are ideal for trade shows, conferences, and other events.

Backlit displays: Backlit displays are a dynamic way to showcase a business's messaging or products. They can be customized with high-quality graphics and can be backlit for added impact. Backlit displays are ideal for retail spaces, museums, and other public spaces.
