

At Deliciomo Foods New York, we are passionate about clean, plant-based, organic, and nutrient-rich dried fruits sourced sustainably. Our commitment to quality ensures that you get the best products for your health and well-being.

Our Featured Product Categories

1. Dried Figs

Our organic dried figs are a delightful treat. These soft and sweet fig chips are rich in nutrients, including potassium and magnesium. While they are often associated with their laxative effects, they also provide essential minerals that support bone, cardiovascular, and muscle health.

Organic Sundried Figs (12 oz / 340g): $12.50

2. Dried Apricots

Apricots are nutrient-dense stone fruits known for their antioxidant content. Although the drying process reduces their vitamin C levels, dried apricots remain a good source of potassium and copper.
